THE HOUSE OF THE WOLFWINGS.

A Tale of the House of the Wolfwings and all the Kindreds of the Mark. Written in Prose and in Verse by WILLIAM MORRIS, author of "The Earthly Paradise." Edition de Luxe. Limited to 500 copies. With photographs prepared from a recent photograph. Bound in antique style. Crown 8vo. Price, $3.

THIS is one of those rare creations of genius which reproduce the life and manners of a remote past and of peoples of a grand kind that civilization cannot assimilate. They live in the stories of their deeds, and whether these are recorded in veritable sagas, or told by some writer of high skill and melodious representations, to no one of which has science contributed a line. They will wait for Stanley himself, and in buying it they will put into his pocket a share of the proceeds of its sale. "IN DARKEST AFRICA" will be in two octavo volumes, complete with maps and ample illustrations from Mr. Stanley's own photographs and sketches. Price $3.75 per volume in cloth. Sold only by subscription. Look on the title page for the imprint of

"IN DARKEST AFRICA."

THE ONLY BOOK IN WHICH HE WILL HAVE A PERSONAL INTEREST. Intelligent and sympathetic people will be glad to buy "Stanley's Book," a short and lucid and misleading representation, to no one of which has science contributed a line. They will wait for the ONLY AUTHENTIC BOOK on this subject, written by Stanley himself, and in buying it they will put into his pocket a share of the proceeds of its sale. "IN DARKEST AFRICA" will be in two octavo volumes, complete with maps and ample illustrations from Mr. Stanley's own photographs and sketches. Price $3.75 per volume in cloth.
